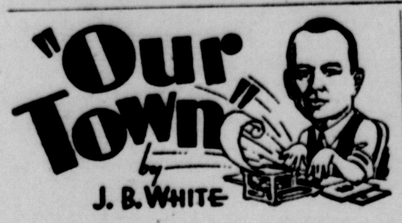
REVIVAL OF COTTON PRODUCTION



Now that we have put away in decisive, commanding fashion the issue of whether we should have a competing system of light and power utilities, it is highly important that, as a people, we safeguard the decision against future agitation of the question. Such a policy should be implemented with the same sound policy by which the proposed venture was turned down. It is well also to maintain the decision of the people was not reached by any of the many extraneous issues that were injected. They simply looked at the matter in a sane sort of way and voted accordingly. No city has cause to consider two systems of light and power utilities. Not inconsiderable in the verdict rendered by the people, the feeling that the city government had failed to go ahead with a feasable program of public improvements for which we stand in great need. This program is now begging for consideration. It is doubly attractive because it would entail no increases in taxes or renditions. There is no cause to be generous in assimilating the bad judgment of those who wanted to go ahead with a dual system of utilities. We say this because all have the right to speak and to advocate and it is not to be remembered that there was a clash of views. We must, on the other hand, keep fresh in mind, that we need unity and cooperation. The same spirit to wisely decide on an issue thus involved, can now be overwhelming for a program of progress. No reference to the results of the election would be either comprehensive or complete without tribute to the fine people who are employed by the power company. There is both a personal tribute to them as well as wisdom in what hapened. This splendid family of employes were able to appeal their cause to the electorate in convincing fashion because they have built here in Cameron an institution of service that must be reckoned with in any future consideration of the issue. The philosopher who coined the phrase, "Flowers for the living" left to us writers a heritage of rich expression and so today we want to pay tribute to them. This is said for Albert, Henry, Ruth, Rush, Nathan, Buck, Merlin, Dean and Eddie. Texas Power & Light Company is still a good citizen and a tax payer and their employes still first in the hearts of the people.

CRUCIAL GAME WILL BE DISTRICT TITLE FACTOR

Council Has Routine Session; May Decide On Improvements Later

The city council held a routine meeting Tuesday night, canvassed the returns from the recent proposed half million dollar bond issue and passed the usual bills and adjourned.

There was a light discusion of proposed improvements, including streets and possibly a municipal building. No action was taken and none is expected for some time.

The city's finances are badly lagging due to heavy drain on the general fund for the age old street department and because of heavy expenditures early in the spring when donations accounted for the entire balance in the treasury. The city is now and has been for some time, borrowing money at 6 per cent to carry on operations.

YOEMEN-TAYLOR GAME IS RATED A TOSS UP

The Yoemen-Taylor game Friday was rated a toss-up by sports writers in a survey of the teams in District 31A.

Despite the fact that the Ducks have lost their last three games and Yoemen have won their schedule by commanding scores, the game Friday night in Taylor was expected to be a chips-down engagement. The Yoemen are rated favorites on paper but it will be the first conference game for the Ducks, defending champions.

Prospects for a dry field were none too bright and if the field is heavy as it was in the Georgetown game anything can happen. Coach Leo Jeckson was hoping for a fast gridiron so that he could realize on the known speed of his backfield.

Thus far the Yoemen have not had the advantage of a dry field except in the Rockdale game when the varsity played only 5 minutes.

The Taylor line will be substantially as it was in 1945 when the Ducks won the district, bi-district and regional. That may spell trouble for the Yoemen.

If the Yoemen win the district they must defeat Taylor and then on October 25 must defeat Killeen.

By reason of the tie game with Georgetown the Yoemen are trailing a half game. Right now Killeen and Rosebud are on top with the Black Panthers having two of their conference tilts out of the way. They have defeated Georgetown and Belton.

Taylor will be playing her first conference game Friday night. It will be the second conference game for the Yoemen.

As usual the Yoemen have played an unimpressive intersectional schedule. In the main their opponents have been Class B teams or weak Class A teams. District 31A is one of the toughest in the state. Local fans in the main are hopeful that a stronger pre-season and intersectional schedule can be arranged for 1947. This would mean lopping off the weak teams and taking on real opponents.

Presbyterians Will Note Progress Made In Churches Here

The Presbyterians of Cameron will have an opportunity to see just exactly what their church is doing in this part of the state next Wednesday night, October 23.

Rev. W. R. Hall, Supt.-Evangelist of the Central Texas Presbytery has made an extensive study of the progress of the Presbyterian church and will present to us pictures of the church at work. Colored slides of almost every church in the Presbytery will be shown—many of the Ministers, and places of special interest to Presbyterians. Also, special emphasis will be given to new work that has been started and the need of Home Mission Work in other fields.

The Home Mission Work of the Presbyterian church ofers a challenge to every conscientious Christian Presbyterian and with this beginning of our Home Mission Emergency Fund Campaign every Presbyterian will want to do his part. Immediately following the talk by Rev. Hall there will be an hour of fellowship and refreshments will be served.

Jeff D. Hefley of Bryan was in Cameron Monday on business. He is currently remodeling a farm home he recently purchased 10 miles out on the Huntsville highway. Mr. Hefley owns the Central Texas Retail Credit Bureau and is a veteran of the recent war with the Marines. He also was a comissioned officer in the army in World War I.

BEEF SUPPLY HERE MAY NOT FEEL PRICE SURGE

Optimistic mortals who see only relief from the shortage in the action of the President in removing all meat controls, may have a rude awakening on certain aspects of the situation.

A survey conducted early Tuesday by The Herald reveals a somewhat unanimous opinion among retail meat dealers that there will be no radical change in either supply or prices on beef. On pork products the outlook is none too good.

It seemed fairly certain that meat prices will go up despite the fact that locally the supply is purchased from the territory. Pork is shipped in and therefore prices will be higher. There was little prospect that the supply would improve immediately.

Fresh beefsteak was selling for 50c per lb. early Tuesday. There had been no concerted recognition of the lifting of controls here.

In the populous centers soaring prices were in prospect. Contrary to common belief the major packers are low on meat storage and this was revealed by the President Monday night.

Livestock prices are bound to increase and producers everywhere who have been holding back because of OPA ceilings would be expected to market their cattle.

One local dealer expressed the belief that suspension of controls would be for a brief period, possibly to influence the election in November. News commentators were also inclined somewhat to that view.

YOEMEN IN RUN AWAY VICTORY OVER ROCKDALE

Running only four plays the varsity Yoemen scored three touchdowns in the first five minutes of play against the Rockdale Tigers Friday night and then were tucked away under the blankets away from the eyes of Coach Johnson of Taylor who sat in the stands to see what he has to combat next Friday night.

T. J. O'Neil, quarter back, called four plays and in the resulting running of those plays, scored three times. Once he got away for 7 yards and a score. On the next it was from the Rockdale 44 yard line and the third sprint for 60 yards. The Yoemen swice converted and the score was 19 to 0.

Coach Jackson sent in his second string and on the opening play of the second quarter M. Garcia scored with an 18 yard run to the Tiger goal. The second team scored two touchdowns, the last being on a pass from Dick Stedman to Bobby Wilkerson in the end zone and Garcia converted. The score was 32 to 7.

The lone Tiger score came in the second quarter. Bill Alford, who was a standout for the Tigers, got six yards off right tackle and then passed to his brother, James Alford for the extra point.

CONGRESSMANN POAGE SAYS MEETING IS VITAL

CONGRESSMAN PACE TO PRESIDE AT MEET HERE

Congressman Steve Pace of Georgia, author of the Pace Parity Bill, will preside when the Committee of Congressmen meet with farmers in Central Texas in Cameron, October 28.

Congressman W. R. Poage, in a letter to The Herald, has outlined the purpose of this meeting. Mr. Poage selected Cameron as one of two sites in Texas because of the city's location. He was given the privilege to name the two meeting places in Texas and one meeting will be held in Lubbock on the South Plains.

Details of the meeting which will be primarily to discuss the problems of cotton production, have been outlined by Poage and the entire text of his letter will be published in The Herald.

The meeting will be held in the District Court room on Monday, Oct. 28. Farm organizations will be represented as will implement dealers.

LEE JOHNSON CONVICTED OVER MILANO SHOOTING

Lee Johnson, charged by indictment with assault with intent to murder in the wounding of Miss Thelma Heath and Dick Baggett near Milano on the night of August 28, was convicted here in district court Wednesday and given a two-year prison sentence.

Attorneys Camp & Camp were before the court presided over by Judge John Watson, Saturday, to ask for a new trial. It was thought, in case the court over ruled the motion that an appeal would be taken.

According to the officers, Miss Heath and Mr. Bagett were wounded when Johnson opened fire, mistaking them for another. Johnson had engaged in a fight in a dance hall near the Burleson county line with George Richard Stamford. It was said that Johnson drew a pistol and in the struggle the gun was discharged and a hole shot through the roof. He retained possession of his gun and went outside looking for Stamford. Seeing the couple in a car he fired and the bullet struck Miss Heath in the forehead and Baggett in the shoulder. Johnson claimed he was mistaken in the identity of the man sitting in the car.

The following communication regarding the session of the sub-committee from the House Agricultural Committee here on Monday, October 28, has been received from Congressman W. R. Poage:

"For the first time in my recollection, the Agriculture Committee of the Congress is arranging hearings in the smaller communities, and certainly this will be the first time such hearings have been held in Central Texas. The Members of the Committee directly interested in cotton held extended hearings in Washington last year, but we realize that if we are to get the viewpoint of the men who actually produce the cotton, we must bring the Committee to the cotton country as very few actual farmers are able to come to Washington. The Committee has, therefore, arranged hearings in most of the Cotton States with two such meetings in Texas.

"As the Texas Member of the Agriculture Committee, I was privileged to name the points at which Texas hearings would be held. I selected Cameron as being truly representative of all except West Texas. At Cameron it will be easy for black land farmers, sandy land farmers and river bottom farmers, large plantation owners, small home owners, and tenant farmers, as well as farm laborers, ginners, farm equipment dealers, and farm organizations to all be represented. We want and invite all groups who depend on cotton for their

JUSTICE OVERTAKES GERMAN CRIMINALS

HERMANN GOERING IS SUICIDE AS OTHERS DIE

Hermann Goering committed suicide by swallowing poison in his cell yesterday shortly before he was to be hanged.

Hitler's former second in cammand drank cyanide of potassium a few moments before the death sentence was to be read to him as a preliminary to his execution.

An envelope was found on his body with pencilled notes and a small brass container made from a cartridge case, which apparently contained the poison vial.

The other 10 condemned men were hung, one at a time, under electric lights inside a small gymnasium inside the Nuernberg city jail's prison yard about 35 yards from the death block.

The hangman came for the 11 Hitler aides who plunged the world into its bloodiest war.

Georing and his 10 partners in war crimes ate their last meal, none of them knowing the exact minute the guard would open the cell door and in grim silence march him down the bleak corridor to his doom.

Unofficial reports said the hangings would begin in Nuernberg prison yard at 12:01 a. m. Wednesday, (5:01 p. m., Central Standard Time, Tunesday), but other reports said the first execution would be at dawn.

Milam Cotton Crop To Be Lowest In the History of County

Census report compiled by J. G. Thompson, special agent for the Department of Commerce, discloses that there were 3815 bales of cotton ginned in the county from the 1946 crop up to October 1.

To the same date in 1945 there were 10,268 bales ginned.

Three sets of American Presidents have had the same last names. They are John Adams and John Quincy Adams; William Henry Harrison and Benjamin Harrison; Theodore Roosevelt and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Meat Price Controls Lifted by President

WASHINGTON. — Angrily assailing "selfish" politicians, President Truman last night abandoned price controls on meat and announced that the whole decontrol program will be speeded up.

Thus, three weeks before the congressional elections, the President altered the course he previously had set, removed the administration's hand on the meat situation completely and for good, and put it up to the industry to restock the housewifes' icebox. He said it was the "only remedy" for the shortage.

The action had been urged by many within his own party. And as he castigated congressmen and candidates whom he blamed for the meat shortage and failure of controls, he made no attempt to pin responsibility solely to republicans.

"The responsibility rests squarely on a few men in the Congress who, in the service of selfish interests, have been determined for some time to wreck price controls no matter what the cost might be to our people," he declared.

And again: "The real blame . . . lies at the door of the reckless group of selfish men who, in the hope of gaining political advantage, have encouraged sellers to gamble on the destruction of price control."

The ceilings on livestock and the food and feed derived from it go off today. That will mean, Mr. Truman announced, that the decontrol of all other items "will have to be accelerated under existing legal standards."

Girl Scouts Prepare For National Week; 100 Here to Participate

Girl Scout Week, celebrated annually by more than a million Girl Scouts throughout the United States, will open on October 27 (designated as Girl Scout Sunday) and continue through November 2, according to Mrs. John B. Henderson, Public Relations chairman.

The theme of the seven-day program highlighting Girl Scout activities and ideals will be "Citizenship in Action Around the World," which was selected, Mrs. Henderson said, because it typifies the widespread interest and effort of Girl Scouts in behalf of world friendship and understanding.

The Girl Scouts of Cameron will join with sister Girl Scouts in more than 8,000 American communities in the observance of Girl Scout Week. According to plans now being completed for the celebration, they will attend church in a body at the First Christian Church on Sunday, October 27.

Girl Scout Week traditionally takes place during the week which includes October 31, the anniversary of the birth of Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouting in the United States.

Following the major interests of the Girl Scout program, the "seven service days" of Girl Scout Week are each devoted to highlighting some special phase of Girl Scouting. Sunday is church going day, when the Girl Scouts attend services in uniform Monday is Homemaking Day; Tuesday, Citizenship Day; Wednesday, Health and Safety Day; Thursday, International Friendship Day; Friday, Arts and Crafts Day, and Saturday, Out-of-doors Day. On each day of the week, Girl Scouts make a special effort to show their families, friends and the community what they are doing and what their organization stands for.

It is estimated that more than one hundred girls will take part in local Girl Scout Week observance this year.

The Texas Colorado Lakes Area Council of Girl Scouts will have a regular Area Association Meeting in Austin, October 17, at the Driskill Hotel. The meeting will begin promptly at 7:30 p..m. All interested adults are invited to attend this meeting.

Science has made another great stride. For years, everyone in a cafe was at the mercy of any customer who had a nickle; that is to say, when one man put his nickle in the juke box, everybody had to listen to the tune, though it might sound to all the other customers like the one the old cow died to.

But in a coffee shop in Waco, when someone drops in a nickle, the tune is announced and, if you want to hear it, you have to put in a nickle, too. If you don't want to hear it, you just eat your food——if any.

Will Beauford Jester name Sen. James Taylor as his successor on the State Railroad Commission? Both men are from the same county. There are 253 other counties in the State.

If the elderly are having a hard time getting by on an average of 80 cents a day—and they are having a hard time, too — what would their plight be if the ceiling of $35,000,000 had been only about half that—which Taylor tried to make it ?

The recent State Democratic convention ignored the Governor-elect's campaign pledge to remove the ceiling and pay the $40 a month in full. In view of the action of the platform makers at San Antonio in giving the old folks the run-around, if the new Governor appoints an arch-enemy of old age pensions to one of the highest ofices in the State, then the elderly and their friends—who helped provide a large part of Mr. Jester's big vote in both primaries—might begin to wonder about things in general. Mr. Jester courageously carried the banner of the old folks high during the campaign and they are counting on him.

livelihood to attend these hearings. Those who want to make statements should communicate with me at Waco at the earliest possible date that we may arrange a schedule of appearances and properly allocate the time.

"The Committee will meet in the District Court Room in the Milam County Courthouse, both morning and afternoon, on Monday, October 28, 1946. Congressman Steve Pace of Georgia, well known in farming circles as the author of the Pace Parity Bill, will preside. He and I both want to make it plain that the actual producers of cotton—share, tenant and day laborer—are invited, as well as the land owners. We want the views of ALL our people and from all sections of the cotton belt.

"The Committee recognizes that were it possible to assure a continuation of the present price of cotton, most of our problems would be solved. We cannot, however, expect these prices to continue. Good judgment, therefore, suggests that we now take steps to deal with the problems which are sure to face cotton growers further down the line. The Committee will, therefore, want to ask interested parties for their views and suggestions.

"Naturally, I hope that the Central Texas hearing can be an outstanding success. To make it such, I must and am sure that I will have the cooperation of the people of Cameron and of the cotton producers of a wide area. If we are to expect the Congressional action that we want, we must impress the Committee with the fact that we are seriously concerned with the future of cotton."

President Truman, in a message honoring National Business Women's Week's theme, "Let's Work Together for Better Communities," says: "Business and Professional Women are in a position to know intimately today's needs in their communities. They are the logical vanguards for any program dealing with housing, public education, public health and full employment."

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Are Returning Veterans "Different"?

During the war you heard a lot about how hard it was going to be for returning veterans to get adjusted to civilian life . . . how they'd be "different."

Well, plenty of them have returned to our town, and a finer, steadier bunch you couldn't ask for. Most of them are back at the same jobs . . . going with the same nice home-town girls (getting married, some of them, and setting up families) . . . renewing the same old friendships.

Even their amusements are the same. Nothing more exciting than fishing Seward's creek or pitching horseshoes . . . enjoying an outdoor barbecue with friendly wholesome beer and pleasant talk.

If they've changed at all it's in the direction of maturity and tolerance . . . tolerance for everything except dictators, and those who would destroy our democratic principles of live and let live. And from where I sit, that's another reason to be proud of them.

'Anna and the King of Siam' Staring Irene Dunne at Cameron

The fantastic, fabulous city of Bangkok in the 1860's, a spectacle of enchanting pagodas, palaces and minarets rose tier on tier over five acres of 20th Centhury-Fox's studio lot as a setting for "Anna and the King of Siam"—the first motion picture to use that colorful and exotic country of the East for its locale.

Darryl F. Zanuck, in reading Margaret Landon's widely-hailed best-seller, had seen the unlimited possibilities in the splendor and spectacle of the biographical account of the adventures of an English governess at the court of King Mongkut. Accordingly, the signal was given Producer Louis D. Lighton to go all-out in applying the largest budget set for a film since prewar days. The picture, starring Irene Dunne, Rex Harrison and Linda Darnell, and directed by John Cromwell, opens Sunday at the Cameron Theatre.

As a culmination of more than a year's research and at a cost of $400,000, sixty-seven exteriors and thirty-four palace interiors, all authentic down to the last detail, were constructed for the picture.

Despite the extraordinary budget the studio allotted for the film, however, there was no out-doing the lavish hand of King Mongkut himself. Research revealed that for his private royal barge which was studded with diamonds, the King tapped the treasury for a sum equivalent to a half million dollars.

Let's Talk Agriculture

BY BILL ARTHUR

Now is the time to plant fall cover crops and fall pasture. Hubam Clover that is planted now will be ready to graze by the first of January. If it is not planted now it will not grow enough before cold weather and as a result there will not be very much grazing. Madrid Sweet Clover is very good, being biennial, will give one year of grazing and the second year could be harvested for seed. In the FFA plots now there is some Madrid Sweet Clover that has grown all year. It was mowed down and now is about 14 inches high. A cover crop is not an expense, they pay their way, by saving the soil, building it up, and furnishing some good grazing for cattle.

Clover should be planted at the rate of 5 to 10 pounds per acre.

Star Rejoices in Role Of Un-frustrated Girl At Cameron Thursday

In a motion picture period shadowed by as strange a series of psychotic personalities as ever challenged Sigmund Freud, Dorothy McGuire is mighty glad to get back to portraying a character who is wonderfully free of murky inhibitions and neuroses.

The character is "Claudia," a role in which Dorothy first gained fame, and which she is currently playing in "Claudia and David," the new 20th Century-Fox hit based on Rose Franken's famed stories and which is to be shown Thursday and Friday at the Cameron Theatre.

Not that the intensely blueeyed blonde actress hasn't had more than her share of choice screen roles—she admits she has been extremely fortunate in getting some of filmdom's juiciest roles and has enjoyed every one of them.

"But it's fun to do a normal girl like 'Claudia' again, after the succession of handicapped girls I've been playing," she explains.

"Katy" in "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," one of Dorothy's finest portrayals, was embittered and tortured by frustrations. In "Enchanted Cottage," Dorothy was so homely, her personality was naturally warped. "The Spiral Staircase" found Dorothy a deaf mute who didn't talk until the end of the picture, while in "Till the End of Time," she was a war widow with a definitely bruised spirit.

"I wouldn't have missed playing one of them for anything," insists Dorothy, "but they were all frustrated females. In 'Claudia and David' I have a home, a husband (played by Robert Young) and a small son. 'Claudia' hasn't a deep-seated frustration in her—just the minor tragedies of wifehood: concern about the illness of her baby; the problem of giving her first dinner party; worry about whether her husband is taking more than a business interest in a beautiful client—that sort of thing.

"'Claudia' does have idiosyncrasies that are sometimes lovable, frequently laughable, and occasionally downright irritating—like the wandering irrelivancies of her mind and speech, her gullibility, her self-assurance and pride about what is probably her most serious fault—her driving.

"Maybe," and here Dorothy McGuire laughed merrily at her own confessions, "I like 'Claudia' because I suspect I'm at least a little like her. And if I must admit I'm anything like any of my screen roles, I'd rather be 'Claudia' than a female with major frustrations."

Mrs. J. H. Sapp has left her home here to spend two weeks in Houston visiting relatives.

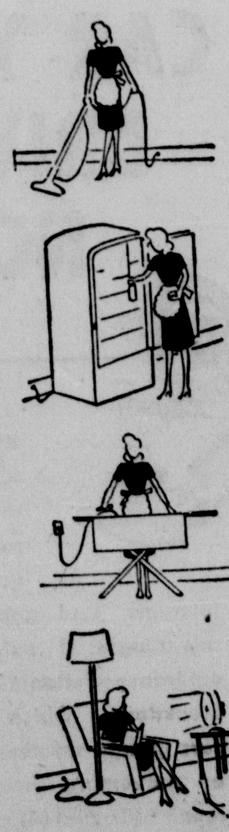
TP&L ELECTRIC SERVICE

...Always "The Smallest Item in Your Family Budget"

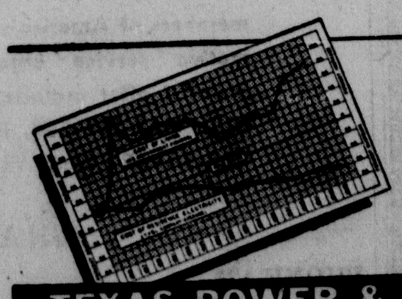


Before the war, your dependable TP&L Electric Service was cheap ... the smallest item in your family budget.

During the war, it needed no ceiling to keep its price down ... and its supply was abundant for all needs.

Since the war, even though other living costs have gone up sharply, your TP&L Electric Service has gone down in price again ... MORE THAN EVER, it's the smallest item in your family budget.

Shortly after the war's end, this Company voluntarily began installation of reduced electric rates, beginning with the metropolitan areas and completing the rate change in the rural areas recently. This latest major rate reduction ... the fifth since 1929 ... means a saving of more than $1,000,000.00 a year to customers of this Company. It means that your electric servants work for you at lower cost than ever before! It means that the average cost per kilowatt-hour for TP&L service today is less than half of what it was only 20 years ago!



It is especially comforting in these days of sharply rising living costs to know that your TP&L Electric Service rates are continuing their long-established downward trend ... in keeping with this Company's policy always to provide its customers with the highest standard of electric service at the lowest possible cost.

TEXAS POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

SHE'S BUSIER THAN EVER

...with more calls from more telephones

Telephone operators are busier than ever during these days of more telephone calls from more telephones than ever before. But they still take pride in doing their job with the same characteristic skill, patience, and courtesy that have caused them to be known as "The Voice With a Smile."

Despite the heavy increase in calls, operators are handling most of them quickly and accurately. Sometimes, during midmorning and late afternoon (the busiest times at the switchboard) there may be a brief wait for "Number, please," but you may be sure your call will be answered as promptly as possible.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Want a Vacation from Marriage?

Alvin Blake went south on his vacation, for some fishing, and left his Missus to enjoy a vacation from the corncob pipe, clothes in a heap, and solos on the harmonica.

First few days, Martha enjoyed it—house neat and quiet, top back on the toothpaste, no morning mess from Alvin's midnight snacks (Al's partial to a bit of cheese and beer at bedtime).

Come the end of the week, she began to fidget; couldn't even read the Clarion, it looked so unmussed; didn't have any appetite with nobody to cook for. She was about to wire Al, when he barges home a week ahead of time, and she almost cries for gratitude. ("Felt the same way myself," says Al.)

From where I sit, those differences of habit and opinion—whether they have to do with corncob pipes, a glass of beer, or playing the harmonica, seem mighty trivial when you're separated. And they are, too!

Fast Moving Action Film, 'Hot Cargo' At Cameron Saturday

Film-goers who relish pictures that proceed at a rapid pace and provide action in every reel, should more than welcome Paramount's "Hot Cargo," which comes to the Cameron Theatre Saturday, preceded by advance notices proclaiming it as Pine-Thomas at their best. As this famous producer-team has earned an enviable reputation for "movies that move," and with the presence in the cast of three such stars as William Gargan, Jean Rogers and Philip Reed, "Hot Cargo" sounds like exciting entertainment.

This latest Pine-Thomas thriller, is melodrama with a timely touch, since it concerns returning soldiers. It is the story of two ex-tank corps men (Gargan and Reed), who stop off in the redwood country of California to carry out a list of last-minute requests made by one of their buddies, who was killed in the war.

The plot begins in a light, humorous vein, but, when the two men discover that their buddy's family is about to lose their small lumber business, they decide to stick around and fight.

They soon discover the culprits who have been using under-handed methods to sabotage the family's business, and in a series of slam-bang encounters, they bring the gang to justice.

'Gentleman From Texas, Due At Milam Friday and Saturday

"The Gentleman From Texas" at the Milam Theatre Friday and Saturday, is expected to be one of the most suspenseful, exciting outdoor dramas of the year. Featured in Monogram's special Scott R. Dunlap production are Johnny Mack Brown, Claudia Drake and Raymond Hatton.

Johnny Mack Brown is sent by Wells-Fargo to the frontier town of Rimrock to investigate lawlessness which is running rampant. He is sworn in as a marshal in an endeavor to bring the outlaws to justice and restore law to the town. How he traps the bandits who run the town provides the thrilling plot with tense moments and much action.

Star Finally Gets to See Sun in Long Over-Due Gay Role at Milam

Glamorizing Anne Baxter comes under the heading of gilding the lily, but in her latest motion picture, 20th Century-Fox's Technicolor spectacle, "Smoky," due Sunday and Monday at the Milam Theatre, the beautiful screen star gets her chance to be gay.

Seen mostly in dramatic roles, Anne was quite pleased with the opportunity to do something light.

"People tend to tire of players who are always cast in heavy roles," she said, "no matter how good they are. Actors and actresses need a change of pace, a variation in their type of parts.

"In my last picture I played a neurotic girl, and before that I had two or three tragic roles in war stories. The studio figured that an outdoor picture like 'Smoky' would give me a chance to smile."

Accordingly, Directer Louis King went all-out in applying the "make 'em gay" technique to Anne. At his suggestion, the film includes a scene at a swimming hole on a Western ranch where Miss Baxter disports herself in a white swimming suit, especially designed for "distinctive appeal." This will be the first time Anne has played a bathing scene or revealed as much as a knee on the screen, since she has always prided herself on her Thespian talents rather than on her "cheese-cake" appeal.

In addition, the "make her gay" technique is evident in her clothes (one of the year's costliest wardrobes), her scenes with the film's star, Fred MacMurray, and Burl Ives, and the general "bright atmosphere" the story gains which is set in the wide-open spaces.

All-in-all, the change of pace was welcomed by Anne. "My friends," she says, "have kidded me about playing leading lady to a horse. But I get to ride and rope, chase wild horses and herd cattle. And in the end I get my man, for a change."

One hundred and two thousand business and professional women will observe the 19th National Business Women's Week, October 13-19th. "Let's Work Together for Better Communities," its theme deals with the improvement of community life.

John Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress has been translated into more than 100 languages and dialects.

YOEMEN PREPPING FOR TAYLOR FRIDAY NIGHT

Facing the first real test of the 1946 season, the Yoemen began prepping for the Taylor Ducks Friday night. The game will be played in Taylor.

Coach Leo Jackson has perfected a new defense by shifting his linemen. The Yoemen will meet Killeen here on the night of the 25th and on the outcome their chances will hinge for the District title.

The Taylor Ducks have not fared well this season and generally they are regarded as secondary as a threat with the top aggregation being the Killeen Kangaroos if the Yoemen win over the Ducks.

Coach Jackson is taking nothing for granted. The moans of Coach Johnson of Taylor is regarded as so much eye-wash. The Duck line this year is almost intact but in the backfield the Yoemen will be superior.

On the effense the men will go back to their reuglarly assigned positions. Eugene Salach will figure in the new defense pattern as a line backer.

Bolstering the line material Coach Jackson is very much pleased with the addition of some new faces on the team. Howard Beal who hails from Curry is a 194-pound freshman tackle who was a tower of strength against the Rockdale Tigers here Friday night. Bob Wilkerson, 170-pound sophomore end from Yarrellton, is going good and Benard White, 160-pound tackle from Jones Prairie, a junior, is another reason why the coach is feeling better these days.

Line play at end on defense has not been up to expectations. This defect will have to be cured to make any headway against Taylor. It is no secret that the Yoemen expect to win from Taylor.

In the backfield T. J. O'Neill, quarterback, may be expected to bear the offensive burden with Paul Burke, fullback, who has thus far not seen his maximum abilities tested out. Laurence Michalka, passing ace will be in there and Richard Earle Burke, scat back, who sustained a broken arm in the Caldwell game, is expected to be ready to go Friday.

L. L. ALBERTSON DEAD FROM ACCIDENT INJURY

L. L. Albertson, 70, retired railroad employe, died at 11 a. m., Monday, October 14 in the Newton Memorial Hospital, from injuries sustained around 7 p. m., Saturday, on West 11th street when he was run down by a team of horses drawing a mowing machine.

According to officers here, Mr. Albertson was on his way to the home of Mrs. G. A. Plentl for his evening meal when he was run down. The team was tethered near the Green & Boedeker store east of the scene of the accident and became frightened and bolted down the street.

There were no eye witnesses to the accident but it is believed the heavy machine was dragged over his body after Mr. Albertson had been knocked to the ground by the horses. Further on down the street the horses and machine crashed into a pickup belonging to Emmett Rutherford.

The body was at the Green Funeral Home pending arrangements for burial which were expected to be announced later in the day.

Father Ben Holub In Expression of Thanks For Success of Picnic

Father Ben Holub, pastor of SS. Cyril and Methodius church at Marak, has written to express the appreciation of the people of the Parish for the splendid patronage of the picnic and bazaar recently.

"Please express our regrets," says Father Holub, "to all those people who came out to our picnic and had to be sent home hungry because we ran out of meat. We will see to it that there isn't a repition of this in the future. Our thanks to all who came, bought at the auction and who donated. Thanks to you too, Mr. White, for advertising our Fall Festival."

Father Holub says a fountain pen was found and anyone losing a pen who can identify this one may get it at the parish house.

Harold (Shorty) Oslin, Football Immortal, Is Visitor in Cameron

Harold (Shorty) Oslin, ex-Centennary football star of the early 1930's was a visitor in the home of his old teammate, Dick Young, Sunday. Oslin is remembered as one of the greatest little backs of all time. He led the Centennary Gentlemen to two straight undefeated seasons against tough Southwest Conference competition. His dazzling speed (9.6 for the hundred) thrilled the spectators into frenzied mobs. He weighed only 145, a fact which endeared him to the hearts of all who saw him go aginst giants of 240 pounds and more.

He was never seriously injured, but usually played 60 minutes of every game. Though small, he was a terror on defense. Such sports writers as Grantland Rice, praised Oslin as one of the greatest backs in America.

Oslin is now employed by the Lufkin Paper Mill. He was loud in his praise of the Midget as a fine and unique newspaper.

Appeal Is Taken In Lee Johnson Case

An appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals was taken in the case of Lee Johnson convicted of shooting Dick Baggett and Miss Thelma Heath near Milano on the night of August 28.

Johnson was given two years in prison. His attorneys Camp & Camp are appealing the case. County Attorney Ed Gunn, conducted the prosecution.

Johnson left the dance hall and was looking for George Richard Stamford and fired a shot into the car in which Baggett and Miss Heath were sitting.

It was Edmund Burke who said "If I were an American and a foreign troop landed in my country I never would give up my arms."
